

IFSJ Final Conference

Strasbourg, France + Online

30 Nov 2023 9.30 - 19.00

Fostering
Social
Justice

BIEENVENUE!

We have the pleasure to invite you to the final conference of Fostering Social Justice, a 3 year Erasmus Plus project, which involved 12 partners from 11 EU countries, to exchange, reflect and foster practices and policies for adult engagement and education.

IFSJ Final Conference

Find more info on travel at www.ifsnetwork.org

Fostering
Social
Justice

During this conference, you will hear about:

- The IFS Fostering Social Justice Project. activities and results.
- The unveiling of our Project White Paper, and Policy recommendations.
- The Launch of EFS - The Euromed Federation of Social cultural and Neighbourhood Centers.

Why should you join?

We want you there to get to know the IFS better, to develop a better connection with each other, and to have the opportunity to be there from the beginning of the Euromed Federation of Settlements. In the future, we want to develop this European NGO to include in our network as many partners from the Euromed area.

We expect 100 people in person, and 100 people on Zoom. If you cannot make it to Strasbourg, we would still like to connect with you online, as this will make our event and our network stronger.

OUTLINE AGENDA

Opening Speeches

Highlights and Results of the IFSJ project:

- Themed Workshops and discussions
- New tools available, and your personal experiences.
- Fostering Social Justice CrowdSurprise.

Unveiling Policy Recommendations:

- Interviews and Discussion panels with external partners.
- How could you use these policy recommendations in your country?

Launch of the EFS:

- Networking and themed discussions.
- The future of collaboration for our network in the Euromed area.

Closing ceremony and drinks

It is mandatory to register for this event on this link

