

Itinerary to the IFSJ Final Conference in Strasbourg

via various means of transportation

Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to provide you with detailed information on the routes to get to Strasbourg for our upcoming November conference using various modes of transportation. Whether you prefer flying, taking the train, or other modes of transport, we have prepared a list of options to meet your needs.

Option 1 By Plane

You can fly to one of these airports to reach Strasbourg:

- | | | |
|---|---------------|----------|
| ✈ Strasbourg
(mostly for Internal flights in France) | ✈ Essen | ✈ Munich |
| ✈ Basel | ✈ Baden-Baden | ✈ Paris |
| | ✈ Frankfurt | |
| | ✈ Karlsruhe | |

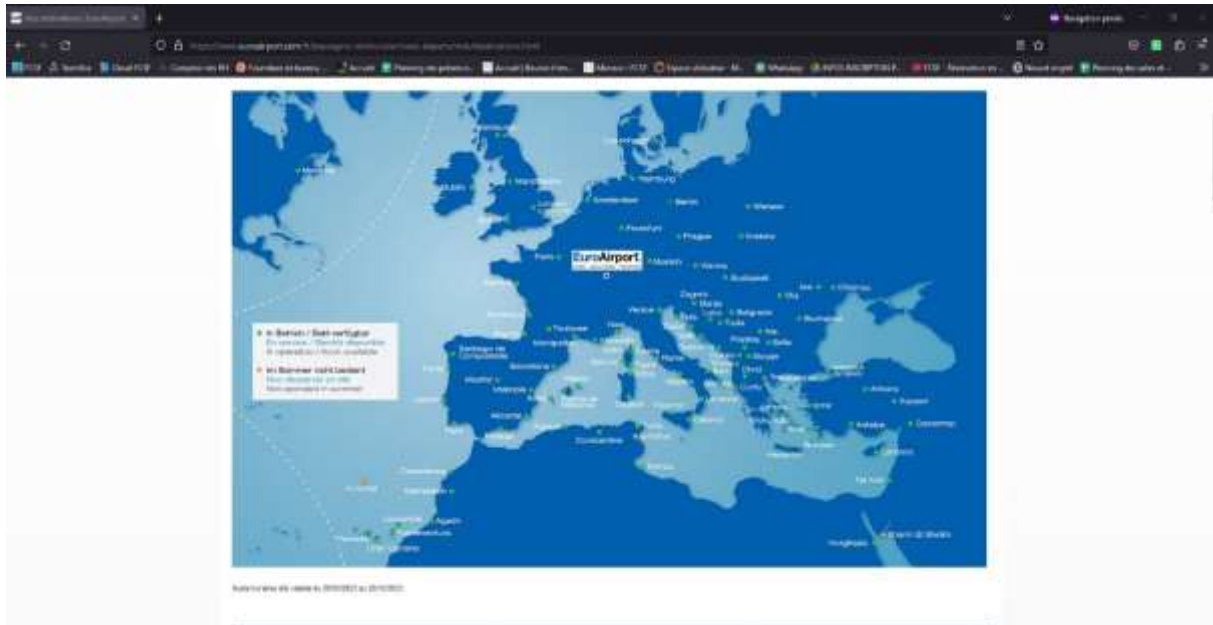

We advise you to get a flight from your International Airport to Basel-Mulhouse-Freiburg Airport (BSL), which is conveniently close to Strasbourg. Upon arrival at Basel-Mulhouse-Freiburg, you can get to Basel train station with a quick shuttle bus (15min) and take a train (1h18) to Strasbourg Train Station. Buy the ticket beforehand on the Trainline or SNCF Connect. Around 28 EUR each way.

A screenshot of a train booking interface for the route 'Ailer - Basel SBB (Bâle CFF) - Strasbourg'. The interface shows several train options with their departure and arrival times and prices for two classes: '2de classe' and '1re classe'.

Train Details	2de classe	1re classe
12:06 Basel Sbb 13:14 Strasbourg TER	28 €	42 €
12:13 Basel Sbb 14:06 Strasbourg TER	58,80 €	99 €
12:21 Basel Sbb 13:39 Strasbourg TER	-	-
12:51 Basel Sbb 14:14 Strasbourg TER	28 €	42 €

Below are the international cities from which you can find flights to Basel-Mulhouse-Freiburg Airport (BSL).

Alternatively, there could be indirect flights to Strasbourg via a French airport: as an example a flight itinerary from Athens to Strasbourg.

 Estimated CO₂ emissions: 68 kg

Finally, there could be an option to travel to Paris airport, then take a train to Strasbourg but please be aware train tickets need to be booked in advance on the Trainline or SNCF Connect, and cost around 60 EUR each way, ie 120 EUR in total.

Option 2 By Train

If you prefer to travel by train for personal or environmental choices, use the Trainline website. Book your train ticket in advance as Strasbourg hosts very big Christmas markets at this time.

And here's how to reach the Saint Thomas Cultural Center in Strasbourg :

1. Take a train from your main railway station to Strasbourg Station.
2. Upon your arrival at Strasbourg Station, you can take a taxi, tram, or bus to reach the Saint Thomas Cultural Center in about 25 minutes.

Option 3 By Car

If you prefer to drive, for those coming from neighboring countries to Strasbourg, the address is as follows : 2 Rue de la Carpe Haute - 67000 STRASBOURG

Option 4 By Bus

Several bus companies offer long-distance routes between your country of residence and Strasbourg. Routes and schedules vary, so please check the websites of bus companies for more informations.

We hope this information will be helpful in planning your trip to Strasbourg. If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact us.

By Car

If coming from the North or South on the A35 motorway: take the "Wacken - European Institutions" exit. Follow the signs for "Wacken," then "Robertsau." You will pass by the European Parliament. After the Germain Muller Bridge, at the level of the Palace of Human Rights, continue straight at the intersection to reach Allée Kastner, then take the first left turn. You will be on Rue de la Carpe-Haute. Enter the courtyard on the right at number 2.

By Tram (How to get tram tickets)

(The Airport-Entzheim shuttle arrives at the Central Station) On the forecourt of the Central Station, board tram "C" (towards "Neuhof") to the République station. Transfer to tram "E" towards "Robertsau-L'Escale" and then disembark at the "Boecklin" station. Retrace your steps along Rue Boecklin from the tram or bus stop. After 50 meters, take a left onto Allée Kastner. The first street on the left is Rue de la Carpe Haute. Saint Thomas Center is located at number 2.

By Bus

Take bus number 10 to Brant-Université, then take bus number 6 to the Boecklin stop.

Please don't forget to verify visa requirements and travel regulations for each mode of transport, especially regarding COVID-19 related restrictions.

Wishing you a smooth travel preparation, and we look forward to seeing you in Strasbourg ☺
