About Us

The International Federation of Settlements and Neighborhood Centers (IFS) is a vibrant global network of over 11,000 community-based organizations dedicated to empowering and connecting people working towards social justice.

Our Approach

Leveraging our extensive network and channels, we provide our members with global visibility, collaborative project opportunities, and a platform for advocacy and support.

Our dynamic online meetings, social media presence, and regular newsletters keep our community engaged and informed.

Our Mission

We advocate for democracy, social justice, and inclusion by facilitating networking, promoting the exchange of innovative ideas, and influencing social policies on a global scale.

Through conferences, training, and exchanges, we foster collaboration and share best practices among our members worldwide.

Be Part of Something Bigger
